

Department of Zoology

History at a Glance

The Zoology Department was established in 2012. The Department offers Zoology at UG (B.Sc.) level with an intake of 60 students. Zoology is the compulsory subject for all students of the CBZ group. Students are imparted Zoological education founded on value based academic principles where in all involved contribute effectively, efficiently and responsibly. The faculty takes keen interest and efforts for the overall development of students through academic and co-curricular activities.

Infrastructure

- Departmental Library with text books and reference books
- Notes are available in soft copy

Methodology

- ICT Based Teaching Learning Process
- Participative Learning
- Blended Learning
- Worksheets
- Lecture Method

Activities

- Organizes Seminars in every session
- Educational tour
- Fish farming in the premises
- Apiculture
- Vermiculture

ASST. PROF. AMIT SURESH THAKARE

Designation

- Assistant Professor
Department of Zoology

Academic Qualification

- M.Sc. (Zoology), SET, B.Ed. Ph.D. pursuing

Ongoing PhD research

- Topic- Study of Diversity and population dynamics of dragonflies and damselflies (Odonata: Insecta) of Umred Tehsil , Dist- Nagpur , Maharashtra State , the Central Part of India

