Prof. Dr. Vijay Dighore and Assistant Programme Officer Asst. Prof. Dr. Anita V. Mahawadiwar chalked out plans of various activities and projects to be undertaken during the period of Camp. The Inaugural Ceremony of the Special Camp was held on 23rd January, 2017. The Camp was inaugurated at the hands of renowned Social Activist Mr. Dilipji Gupta. The Inaugural Programme was Chaired by the Principal of the College. Mrs. Mangala Vijay Tambe, Sarpanch, Gram Panchayat, Adyal, Mr. Rangrao R. Bhojar, Chairman of School Committee, Adyal, Mr. Vasantji Gaikwad, Dy. Sarpanch, Gram Panchayat, Adyal, Mr. R. D. Shete, Headmaster of Zilla Parishad School, Adyal and Mr. Suraj Thakare, Member of Gram Panchayat, Adyal marked their gracious presence in the programme along with all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the College. The Inaugural Ceremony got started with the official Flag Hoisting of N.S.S at the hands of Mrs. Mangala Vijay Tambe, Sarpanch, Gram Panchayat, Adyal. During the ceremony the images of Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj and Mahatma Gandhi were garlanded. In his Introductory Speech, the Programme Officer of N.S.S Asst. Prof. Dr. Vijay Dighore explored the outline of the Camp. In his Presidential Address, the Principal of the College sensitized the participants about their social commitments and responsibilities and appealed to the N.S.S Volunteers to undertake some fruitful Community Services throughout this Camp. Asst. Prof. Dr. Anita Mahawadiwar conducted the Proceedings of the programme and Asst. Prof. S.V. Wasekar proposed the formal Vote of Thanks. The N.S.S Volunteers performed some cultural programmes in the evening for the entertainment of the villagers.

On 24th January, 2017 the N.S.S Volunteers conducted activities like Morning Prayer, Yoga and Pranayama. At 7.15 A.M 'Jagaran Dindi' (Awareness March) was organized. In the 'Jagaran Dindi', the participants shouted various slogans to create awareness about De-addiction, Save Environment, Save Girl Child, Importance of Cleanliness etc. Once the Rally was over, the Volunteers carried out 'Shramdaan' and 'Cleanliness Drive' in the premises of Zilla Parishad School, Adyal.

The Afternoon Session of the day was engaged by Mr. Ganesh Ramteke, Taluka Agriculture Officer, Bhiwapur. In his lecture, he offered various citations from 'Shivakaleen Lake' to 'Kolhapuri Dam' to inform the villagers and the N.S.S Volunteers about various Government schemes for the improvement of agriculture sector. The N.S.S Volunteers organized various cultural events in the evening for the villagers on the theme of Environment and Clean India.

In the morning on 25th January, 2017, soon after the Morning Prayer, the N.S.S Volunteers performed Yoga and Pranayama under the guidance of Asst. Prof. Aditya K. Sarwe, Director of Physical Education and Sports. Having enjoyed sumptuous breakfast, the Volunteers were again engrossed in 'Shramdaan'. Some groups made surveys to identify households sans toilet facilities. Having sensitized the villagers about the adverse effects of open defecation on their health, the N.S.S Volunteers convinced them and initiated the work of digging lavatory pit for the houses of (1) Shri. Ramesh Maroti Bhivankar, 2) Shri. Sakharam Deshmukh. 3) Shri. Pramod Dhanraj Thackeray, 4) Shri. Kalawati Banduji Deshmukh, 5) Shri. Gautam Ramji Nagarare and 6) Shri. Moreshwar Rushi Kudegave. Having taken inspiration from the work initiated, the members of the respective families also put in their laborious efforts in digging the lavatory pits along with the Volunteers of N.S.S. Subsequently six lavatory pits were successfully dug. Some Volunteers carried out the responsibilities of Tree Plantation, Digging and Cleaning of Drains, Garbage Removal and Disposal, Removal of unwanted vegetation etc. In the Afternoon Session, 'Free Health Check-up Camp for Women and Children' was organized. In the beginning, Dr. Bodke, Medical Officer of Government Primary Health Centre, Somnala (Tah: Bhiwapur) sensitized the villagers about various diseases like Malaria and Diarrhea. Later on he conducted the Medical check-up of villagers and the N.S.S Volunteers.

On the same day, on the occasion of 'National Voter's Day', a series of lectures on various topics were organized. Advocate Pimpalkar guided the N.S.S Volunteers on the topic of 'Ragging' and disseminated vital information about various provisions in Law to curb the menace of ragging. Through his speech, Advocate Mandawakar created awareness among the students about 'Cyber Law'. He expressed his deep concern about the increasing misuse of mobile phones. Advocate Nagose threw flood of light on the 'Dowry Prevention Act and Domestic Violence Act-2005'. In his speech, Mr. Narahari Pendam, a Social Activist, covered various topics like Constitution of India, the Curse of Untouchability and Caste Discrimination. Later on, the sitting Civil Judge of Bhiwapur Hon. S. A. Khalane, elaborated on the cases of Mukherjee and Mahatma Gandhi to demonstrate how arguments are made in the absence of a lawyer and explained the nuances of law.

Hon. Mrs. Chaitali Darade, Naib Tehsildar, Tahsil Office, Bhiwapur, irradiated information on the topic of 'Necessity of Casting Vote for Strengthening Democracy' and 'Revenue Related Legislation'. On the occasion of '7th National Voter's Day', she convinced the N.S.S Volunteers and the voters about the importance of casting vote to strengthen the foundation of Democracy. The 'Voter Awareness Programme' was also graced by luminaries like Advocate Rathod, the Public Prosecutor, Mr. Likhari, Mr. Barde, Mr. Dani, Mrs. Bhure and Mr. Raghute from Panchayat Samiti, Bhiwapur. After the evening prayers, various intellectual games were organized for the Volunteers. After the preliminaries on 26th January, 2017 the N.S.S Volunteers offered Morning Prayer followed by Yoga and Pranayama. Thereafter, the Volunteers participated in the Flag Hoisting Ceremony in the premises of Zilla Parishad School, Adyal. After that, the Volunteers participated in various Cultural Programmes.

Dr. Gopichand Nibarte, Asst. Prof. V.N.I.T., Nagpur, delivered his speech on "Addiction and Today's Youth" at 2.30 P.M in the Afternoon Session. Through his speech, he expressed his concern about today's youth entangled in the grip of addiction. He also exposed the adverse effects of addictions. As such, Mr. Sumit Mahure from Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur marked his gracious presence in the programme. A written examination on General Knowledge was conducted from 5.00 P.M to 6.00 P.M for the Volunteers of N.S.S. Prizes were given away to the successful Volunteers on the concluding day of the Camp.

On 27th January, 2017 the N.S.S Volunteers offered prayers at 6.00 A.M after completing the preliminaries. After doing Pranayama and Yoga some of the Volunteers accomplished the incomplete work of 'Shramdaan' in the village. Some Volunteers initiated 'Shramdaan' by cleaning the premises of Zilla Parishad School, Adyal. Having done the job, the Volunteers started preparations for the Concluding Programme.

The Concluding Programme was started at 2.00 P.M. The Principal of the College Chaired the function while Mr. Ravindraji Dubey, Police Inspector, Bhiwapur Police Station was the Chief Guest of the programme. Mr. Dubey motivated the Volunteers by citing his real-life experiences about his selfless services for the society during his College life. The Principal of the College, in his Presidential Speech, praised the Volunteers for their outstanding and sincere contributions and devotions towards society. He also encouraged the Volunteers to continue such zeal of selfless Community Services in the future too.

'Samyak Group' of N.S.S Volunteers was declared as the winner for its outstanding contributions in the Camp. Mr. Adesh Chandramaniji Meshram was declared as an 'Outstanding Volunteer' from boys' side while Ms. Shivani Vamanji Gaimukhe was declared as an 'Outstanding Volunteer' from girls' section.
