BRIEF REPORT	Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya is committed to uncover the ingenious instincts of our students through the layers of our coveted College Magazine "Nirdhar". "Nirdhar" is a gateway for hundreds of students to uncoil their creative talents; may it be poetry, prose or any other literary form. The "Magazine Committee" of our Institution provides proper platform for such students to initiate their literary journey by exploring their

innovative and creative thoughts. A student may like to present creative ideas in the form of poetry, short narrative, essay, humour, fiction, puzzles, or cartoons in "Nirdhar", which is published once in an Academic Year. A student has the freedom to explore ideas in any of the two languages viz. Marathi and English, depending upon his/her command over the language. Students inclined to painting, cartoon, pencil sketch and photography can also exhibit their talents in cartoons in "Nirdhar".

The role of teachers is also very imperative to bring out a good Magazine. The main role of teachers, however, is to encourage and guide the students who desire to nurture their writing skills. The responsibility of the Editorial Board of "Nirdhar" is taken up by the language teachers, along with some senior students. It is also the responsibility of the Editorial Board to see that no student is indulged in plagiarism. The selection of material was done by the Editorial Board very judiciously. While making selection, the Editorial Board paid due attention and selected only proper write-ups. The Editorial Board suggested necessary corrections in the language, style etc., of the articles and other literary creations selected for publication in the College Magazine. Thus, the "Magazine Committee" stimulated teachers to identify and encourage the creativity, original thinking, and presentation skills of the students.

To select the Editors of 'Nirdhar', the "Magazine Committee" organized 'Essay Writing Competition' on 13th January, 2017 on the topic "Concept of Clean India in Present Scenario". Miss Snehal Rathod and Miss Vina Bhojar were selected from students' fraternity on the Editorial Board of College Magazine for Marathi and English Languages respectively. Asst. Prof. Dr. Madhukar Nandanwar, the Member Secretary of "Magazine Committee", encouraged the students to submit their original handwritten literature to be published in the College Magazine. Along with the original literature submitted by the students, the Member Secretary sought the Annual Report of some of the prominent Institutional Committees along with the photographs; vide Notice issued on 24th April 2017. Thus, "Nirdhar" reflected the literary, educational and sports activities executed in the College. As such, it projected the important events celebrated in the College during the Academic Session 2016-2017. The 'Magazine Committee' of the College has put in their best efforts to bring out the Magazine for the Academic Session 2016-2017. The Magazine was received by the students and staff very enthusiastically.
