George, the Principal of Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya on 19th October, 2019. At the outset, Asst. Prof. Dr. Anita Mahawadiwar, OSOSP Coordinator, Asst. Prof. Dr. M.R. Chavhan and Asst. Prof. Dr. M. V. Kadu were prominently present in the Programme. The Principal of Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya addressed the students and encouraged them to undergo at least three Skills Oriented Courses while doing their Degree Programmes from this Institution. He also motivated the students to become self-reliant for facing the future challenges in life.

Later on, 'Oyster Mushroom Cultivation Training Programme' was organized at Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya, Bhiwapur from 10th February, 2020 to 12th March, 2020.

In accordance with that, the theory and practical classes were conducted by the trainer Miss Pramila Manapure through which trainees became aware of Oyster Mushroom Cultivation Training Programme. In her theory lecture, she exemplified the trainees that Mushroom has a high protein content, which helps for lowering cholesterol and improves the digestive system. It gives vitamin 'D' which is essential for the absorption of calcium. It also helps the body to absorb Oxygen and creates red blood cells. Selenium-an antioxidant that helps neutralize free radicals, thus preventing cell damages and reducing the risk of cancer and other diseases. Mushroom contains more selenium than any other form. Potassium- an extremely important mineral that regulates blood pressure and keeps cells functioning properly. It also helps to give minerals as phosphorous, zinc and magnesium. Alongside, she also explained the process of cultivation of Oyster Mushroom through practical demonstration. The following tools were used for the practical demonstration;

- Paddy straws
- Polythene bag
- Spirit /Dettol
- Polythene sheet
- Seed of Mushroom

In all thirty one students of the College participated in the 'Oyster Mushroom Cultivation Training Programme'. The Principal of the College congratulated all the beneficiaries of our Institution for participating in this Skill Training Programme. After the harvesting process of Oyster Mushroom, small packets were prepared and sold to the staff of the Institution for Rs. 100 (per packet). Dr. Jobi George, the Principal of Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya, Asst. Prof. Dr. M. V. Nandanwar, Asst. Prof. Dr. M. R. Chavhan, Asst. Prof. Dr. A. V. Mahawadiwar, Asst. Prof. A. K. Sarwe and Asst. - To provide an ideal platform and opportunity for scientific community, academicians, industrialists and policy makers all over the globe to keep abreast of the latest developments in the scientific/ technical areas.
- To establish connectivity with other individuals and research groups.
- To provide strong orientation towards scientific research in the areas of Science, Engineering and Technology.

About Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya:

When there were no elite educational institutions catering professional and conventional schooling to the rural youths of the disadvantaged sections of the society in Vidarbha, it was Heavenly Bhauasaheb Govindrao Mulak who pioneered the beginning of a new era in Higher Education in Maharashtra by establishing a Charitable Trust as Backward Class Youth Relief Committee (B.C.Y.R.C.) in 1974. Since its inception BCYRC has blossomed into seventeen educational institutions all over Vidarbha imparting Higher Education in all the branches of learning. Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya, which is affiliated to Rashtrasra Tanujaji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur was established in 1990 through Arts Faculty with the noble vision of imparting education to the rural youths for enabling them to learn locally and flourish globally in spite of the evils of poverty and ignorance. Subsequently Faculty of Commerce and Management and Faculty of Science were added in 2002 and 2012 respectively. Post Graduate courses in Economics, Political Science and Sociology are functional from 2004. Over the years, the institution has earned a reputation as one of the premier co-educational institutions in Nagpur rural region imparting education in the Faculties of Arts, Commerce and Science with the strong support of highly competent and skilled teaching and non-teaching staff.
