BRIEF REPORT	Our Institution, under the auspices of IQAC, performed an inspiring ‘Street Play’ during the Rally organized by National Service Scheme Unit of our Institution on 2nd October, 2022, on the auspicious occasion of Mahatma Gandhi’s Birth Anniversary (Gandhi Jayanti). This initiative was organized by the ‘De-Addiction Committee’ of our Institution as part of its cleanliness and health awareness campaign. The Street Play performance was orchestrated by ‘De-addiction Committee’ on the theme of ‘De-addiction: the Need of the Hour’. The Street Play disseminated the message that how addiction can destroy a family. A total of 12 Volunteers of the De-addiction Centre actively participated in this impactful Street Play. Through their dramatic performances, they conveyed a powerful message about the devastating effects of addiction on a family’s well-being and unity. The play was aimed to raise awareness among the students and the general public in Bhiwapur about the harmful consequences of addiction, emphasizing the importance of leading a healthy and responsible life. By choosing Mahatma Gandhi’s birth anniversary as the perfect occasion for this performance, the ‘De-addiction Committee’ paid homage to his legacy of promoting social and moral values. The Street Play served as a meaningful

	tribute to Gandhiji's Principles and values, encouraging the community to reflect on the importance of clean and healthy living while addressing critical issues like addiction that can tear families apart. Overall, this Street Play was a commendable effort to spread awareness, evoke empathy, and inspire positive change in the community, aligning with the spirit of Mahatma Gandhi's teachings and values. Enthusiastic involvement of the students namely Ganesh Bokde, Ashish Bhojer, Manish Gajbhiye, Rohit Raut, Ms. Isha Gawande, Ms. Tanu Devade, Lokesh Wagh, Sahil Yewle, Samir Savasade and Vaibhav Nagekar, contributed significantly to the success of this Street Play.
