DETAILED REPORT OF THE ACTIVITY	The 'Women's Study Centre' of our College, under the aegis of IQAC, celebrated International Women's Day on 8th March, 2025. The occasion was graced by the prominent presence of Dr. Mrs. Varsha Gupta, renowned gynaecologist, Shree Sai Hospital, Bhiwapur, who delivered a compelling speech on the theme 'Women in Education: Mentorship and Impact'. The Event was chaired by Dr. Jobi George, the Principal of our College. The Programme was made so special with the august presence of Miss. Puja Lodhi, Team Leader, Nagpur region, Samta Foundation, Mumbai, Mrs. Keerthi Nair, Principal, K. D. K. International School, Bhiwapur, Asso. Prof. Dr. Anita V. Mahawadiwar, Member Secretary of Women's Study Centre, along with Prof. Dr. S. K. Shinde. At the outset, Dr. Varsha Gupta, delivered an enlightening speech, emphasizing that today's women are increasingly self-guided and empowered, particularly in terms of decision-making-more so than in the past. She attributed this progress to the evolving mind-set of men, highlighting that the encouragement and support of the male members of the family play a crucial role in every woman's success.

	Dr. Varsha Gupta also introduced the audience to various Government Schemes aimed at empowering women, noting that such initiatives have significantly narrowed the gap between men and women. She underscored that women today are not only effective mentors and guides within their families but also serve as role models in society and the workplace. As part of the programme, 10 Sewing Machines were distributed free of cost to deserving women through the Samta Foundation, Mumbai, in collaboration with Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya. This initiative was aimed to promote self-reliance among women, enabling them to contribute to their family income. In his Presidential Address, Dr. Jobi George, the Principal of our College, encouraged the audience to remain mentally, physically, and socially empowered in order to thrive in society. He also extended his warm wishes to one and all on the occasion of International Women's Day. The Proceedings of the Event was skilfully conducted by Asso. Prof. Dr. Anita V. Mahawadiwar and the formal Vote of Thanks was proposed by Asst. Prof. Dr. Jyoti Bante. In all, 135 participants marked their attendance in the Event.
PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES	• To celebrate and honour the achievements of women in various fields, especially in education, mentorship, and social impact. • To raise awareness about women's empowerment and the evolving role of women in decision-making within families and society. • To introduce and disseminate information about Government schemes and initiatives aimed at empowering women. • To promote mentorship and leadership among women in education and community development. • To encourage self-reliance among women by supporting skill development and income-generating activities, such as the distribution of Sewing Machines. • To highlight the importance of men's support in the empowerment and success of women. • To foster mental, physical, and social well-being among women, as emphasized in the Presidential Address. • To provide a platform for dialogue and exchange of ideas on gender equality and women's rights. • To engage students, faculty, and community members in meaningful celebrations and discussions around International Women's Day.

PROBLEMS FACED, IF ANY	Time Management: Managing the time allotted for each speaker and segment of the Event was a challenge to keep the Proceedings on track and avoid any delay.
