DETAILED REPORT OF THE ACTIVITY	An International Youth Day Programme was organized under National Service Scheme (NSS) and the Red Ribbon Club in the College. On the occasion of International Youth Day, Associate Prof. Dr. M.R. Chavhan made the NSS Volunteers aware of their responsibilities. He stated that today's students often lack proper direction and therefore need guidance. Hence, organizing such Youth Day Programmes is essential. He also mentioned that many youth today are physically weak and advised students to take nutritious food and pay attention to their health. Efforts were made to remove misconceptions about HIV prevailing in the society. It is necessary for every student to have proper knowledge about this disease. Through the Red Ribbon Club of Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya, continuous awareness about HIV is created among students. Awareness is also spread through Street Plays. On this occasion, Asst. Prof. Dr. Vinita S Virgandham also guided the students. She advised them to focus on their careers along with social work. She encouraged students to maintain a positive attitude and attend regular classes in the College. A large number of NSS students were present for the Programme. The success of the Programme was made possible through the sincere efforts of NSS Volunteers. Committee members Asst. Prof. Dr. Ashwini Kedar and Asst. Prof. Darshana Damdhar were also present.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES	• To highlight the issues and challenges faced by youth • To create awareness about education, employment, and health • To encourage youth participation in nation-building • To develop leadership qualities and sense of social responsibility among young people
PROBLEMS FACED, IF ANY	• Lack of awareness among youth about the importance of the Programme • Limited participation due to academic schedule and other commitments • Shortage of time for proper preparation • Limited financial or material resources • Technical issues (if presentations or digital tools were used) • Coordination difficulties among organizers
IMPACT/OUTCOME ACHIEVED	• Increased awareness among students about the importance of youth participation in nation-building. • Enhanced the understanding of social responsibility and leadership qualities. • Encouraged active involvement of youth in community service activities. • Boosted the confidence and communication skills of participants. • Strengthened teamwork and coordination among students. • Inspired students to contribute positively towards society and national development.
ANALYSIS REPORT OF THE FEEDBACK OBTAINED FROM STUDENTS/ BENEFICIARIES/ ACADEMIC PEERS ETC.	Based on the Feedback collected from 34 NSS Volunteers and the general student participants, here are the five key points summarizing their experiences of the Red Ribbon Club's AIDS Awareness Programme: • Students noted that the Session effectively cleared up common misconceptions, particularly emphasizing that HIV is not transmitted through casual social contact like hugging or sharing utensils.

- The participants expressed a shift in attitude, moving from fear-based perceptions to a more empathetic approach toward supporting and respecting the rights of those living with HIV/AIDS.
- The 34 NSS Volunteers felt the training equipped them with the specific vocabulary and factual knowledge needed to act as confident health ambassadors in their own communities.
