DETAILED REPORT OF THE ACTIVITY	Under the guidance of Principal Dr. Jobi George, a Students' Seminar on the topic "Discussion on the Budget" was organized for the students by the Department of Economics at Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya on 20th March, 2026 in the Smart Room. Prof. Dr. Sunil Shinde presided over the Seminar, and Asso. Prof. Dr. Anita Mahawadiwar, Head of the Department of Commerce, was present as the Chief Guest. In this Seminar, an in-depth discussion was held on Maharashtra Government's Budget for 2026-2027. The students primarily expressed their detailed views on the State's revenue sources, provisions made for agriculture and rural development, funding for the education and health sectors, infrastructure development, social welfare schemes, as well as the Government's expenditure provisions for employment generation and industrial development and their potential impact on the economy. During the Seminar, the Chief Guest Ass. Prof. Dr. Anita Mahawadiwar explained how essential it is for students to have knowledge of the Budget. She opined that the Budget helps us to understand the direction of the state's economic policies and would assist students in career planning. The Proceedings of the Programme was done by Ms. Sadhana Malode, while the formal Vote of Thanks was proposed by Ms. Saroj Selore. On this occasion, twenty-four Students of the Subject Literacy Association of Economics were present.
PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES	• To help the students for understanding the meaning, structure, and importance of a Government Budget. • To make students aware of the key provisions and priorities in the State Budget 2026-2027. • To improve students' knowledge of taxation, public expenditure, and fiscal policy. • To enable students to analyze Budget provisions for agriculture, education, health, and infrastructure. • To motivate students to critically evaluate the strengths, weaknesses, and socio-economic impact of the Budget. • To help students in understanding how the Budget affects common people and their families. • To provide useful knowledge for competitive examinations like UPSC, MPSC, and other academic purposes. • To encourage students to actively engage in discussions, presentations, and debates on Budget-related issues.

PROBLEMS FACED, IF ANY	Despite sending messages in the group and reaching out to students personally, the attendance in the Seminar was lower than expected.
IMPACT/OUTCOME ACHIEVED	• Students gained clarity about revenue, expenditure, deficit, and fiscal planning. • Students critically analyzed Budget provisions and policies. • Students became aware of current economic challenges and Government responses. • Students developed knowledge about taxes, savings, and public finance. • Participation in discussions improved speaking and presentation abilities. • The Seminar became useful for higher education, Research, and competitive examinations. • Students became more aware and responsible citizens regarding public policies. • Students developed curiosity and engagement in economic and Governance issues.
ANALYSIS REPORT OF THE FEEDBACK OBTAINED FROM STUDENTS/ BENEFICIARIES/ ACADEMIC PEERS ETC.	Students reported that the Seminar on Budget was highly informative and engaging. It provided them with a clear understanding of Budgetary concepts, Government Policies, and sectorial allocations. The discussion enhanced their analytical and communication skills. Many students found the Seminar beneficial for the preparations of competitive examinations and commended the interactive nature of the Session, which fostered greater interest in Economics and Public Policy.
