DETAILED REPORT OF THE ACTIVITY	Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya integrated a high-impact Session on Skill and Entrepreneurship Development into its on-going National Service Scheme (NSS) special residential Camp at Nakshi. The initiative sought to equip rural volunteers with the professional acumen necessary to navigate an increasingly competitive global economy. The Session held on January 17, featured Mr. Hemant Waghmare, Divisional Officer and State Coordinator of the Maharashtra Centre for Entrepreneurship Development (MCED). Addressing an audience of 100 residential Volunteers, Mr. Hemant Waghmare delivered a persuasive call to action urging the youth to pivot from traditional employment pursuits toward becoming job architects and catalysts for rural wealth creation. Principal Dr. Jobi George noted that, “By bringing expert mentorship directly to our adopted village, we are ensuring that our Volunteers return to their communities not just as workers, but as leaders capable of driving regional prosperity”. The successful execution of the Session was overseen by NSS Programme Officers Asso. Prof. Dr. Motiraj Chavhan and Asst. Prof. Dr. Vinita S Virgandham marking a significant milestone in the Camp’s mission to merge social responsibility with modern digital and financial literacy.
PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES	• Equip rural NSS Volunteers with essential skills for entrepreneurship to thrive in a competitive global economy. • Inspire youth to shift from job-seeking to job creation, fostering self-employment and innovation. • Deliver expert mentorship directly in adopted villages to build leadership for regional prosperity. • Integrate entrepreneurship training with NSS activities, combining social responsibility and modern literacy like digital and financial skills.
PROBLEMS FACED, IF ANY	• Limited access to professional expertise in remote rural areas like Nakshi, hindering skill development. • Traditional mind-set among rural youth favouring employment over entrepreneurship, resisting mind-set shift. • Logistical challenges in organizing high-impact Sessions during residential NSS Camps for 100 Volunteers. • Need to balance core NSS social service goals with new focuses on digital and financial literacy.

IMPACT/OUTCOME ACHIEVED	• Empowered 100 Volunteers with actionable insights from MCED expert, boosting confidence in wealth creation. • Positioned Volunteers as community leaders, enabling them to drive rural economic prosperity upon return. • Marked a milestone in NSS Camps by successfully merging social responsibility with entrepreneurship training. • Strengthened Institutional outreach, as noted by Principal Dr. Jobi George, for sustainable regional development.
ANALYSIS REPORT OF THE FEEDBACK OBTAINED FROM STUDENTS/ BENEFICIARIES/ ACADEMIC PEERS ETC.	Students found the Skill and Entrepreneurship Development Session highly inspiring and practical. Mr. Hemant Waghmare's dynamic talk motivated 100 NSS Volunteers to embrace job creation over traditional employment. They appreciated the rural-focused insights on digital literacy and wealth building, gaining confidence to lead community initiatives. Overall, it was a transformative experience blending social service with real-world skills.
