In his presidential address, Dr. Jobi George expressed satisfaction over the work done by the Volunteers and emphasized the need for planning future activities in the village. He suggested that the work should not be limited to the Camp period alone but should continue through regular visits and activities by NSS Volunteers. NSS Volunteer Miss. Anjali Maraskolhe expressed her views on the occasion. During the Camp, the best Volunteers and best group were selected. • Best Volunteer (Male): Mr. Gaurav Adamne • Best Volunteer (Female): Ms. Pragya Dahivale • Best Group: Janseva Group They were appreciated with Awards and Certificates. The Programme was hosted by NSS Volunteer Miss. Saroj Selore and the Vote of Thanks was delivered by Asst. Prof. Someshwar Wasekar. The success of the Programme was made possible due to the efforts of NSS Volunteers and the cooperation of the villagers.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES	• To develop a sense of social responsibility among students through community service. • To promote awareness about cleanliness, hygiene and environmental protection in the rural areas. • To encourage digital literacy under the theme “Youth for Digital Literacy”. • To create awareness about social issues such as de-addiction, women empowerment, and health. • To enhance leadership qualities, teamwork, and personality development among students. • To strengthen the connection between the College and rural community. • To promote skill development and employment awareness among rural youth and women. • To motivate students to actively participate in nation-building activities under “Youth for My Bharat”.

PROBLEMS FACED, IF ANY	Some minor challenges were faced during the Camp, such as limited resources, weather conditions and initial coordination with villagers. However, these issues were effectively managed through proper planning, teamwork, and support from the local community.
IMPACT/OUTCOME ACHIEVED	• Increased awareness among villagers about cleanliness, hygiene and health. • Positive response and active participation from the local community. • Improved village environment through cleanliness and sanitation activities. • Enhanced leadership qualities, teamwork, and social responsibility among students. • Awareness created regarding digital literacy, cyber security, and social issues. • Encouragement to women and youth for skill development and empowerment. • Strengthened bond between the College and the adopted village.
ANALYSIS REPORT OF THE FEEDBACK OBTAINED FROM STUDENTS/ BENEFICIARIES/ ACADEMIC PEERS ETC.	The cumulative feedback for the week-long NSS Special Camp at Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya reflects a profound sense of community impact, with Volunteers highlighting the transformative nature of their rural stay and the development of leadership skills. Villagers and the Sarpanch expressed deep appreciation for the tangible outcomes of the cleanliness drives and health awareness Programmes, noting a visible improvement in local sanitation and social awareness. Guests and Resource Persons commended the disciplined execution of the technical sessions, while the Principal lauded the Unit's success in bridging the gap between academic learning and grassroots social service. While the overall response was overwhelmingly positive, the feedback suggests that extending the duration of specific skill-based Workshops would further benefit the youth. Ultimately, the Camp successfully fulfilled the NSS motto, fostering a strong bond of mutual respect and cooperation between the
