DETAILED REPORT OF THE ACTIVITY	To inspire a deep-rooted commitment to community service among the youth, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Bhiwapur Mahavidyalaya recently hosted an enriching Orientation Programme. The academic gathering was presided over by Prof. Dr. Sunil Shinde, Head of the Department of Economics. Setting the Institutional context, Associate Professor Dr. Motiraj Chavhan, former Divisional Coordinator of NSS and Programme Officer delivered the introductory remarks, charting out the core vision and roadmap of the Session. The focal point of the Programme centered on the expert insights delivered by the Distinguished Speaker, Associate Professor Dr. Natthu Girde from Arts and Commerce College, Bhisi. Dr. Natthu Girde provided an expansive breakdown of the various initiatives undertaken through the National Service Scheme, powerfully emphasizing that community engagement is a fundamental catalyst for a student's holistic growth. He strongly encouraged the Volunteers to challenge themselves by aspiring for elite opportunities such as National, State-level, Regional and Adventure camps, alongside the prestigious State Republic Day (SRD) and National Republic Day (NRD) Parades noting that these milestones shape individuals into responsible citizens.

Delivering the presidential address, Professor Dr. Sunil Shinde built upon this vision by highlighting the tangible community impact achieved by the Institution. He noted that the extension and adoption activities carried out in rural pockets like Kargaon, Bhagebori, Chikhli and Bhiwapur have earned widespread institutional recognition and awards proving that the social accountability cultivated via NSS lays the groundwork for a meaningful future.

The official proceedings were further graced by the presence of Associate Professor Dr. Anita Mahawadiwar, IQAC Coordinator, Assistant Professor Dr. Vinita Virgandham, the NSS Programme Officer and NSS Committee members; Assistant Professor Amit Thakare and Assistant Professor Dnyaneshwar Kamdi along with the NSS Volunteers.

The Event was hosted by Associate Professor Dr. Motiraj Chavhan and the formal Vote of Thanks was proposed by Assistant Professor Dnyaneshwar Kamdi.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES	▪ To introduce students to the aims, objectives and importance of the National Service Scheme (NSS). ▪ To motivate students to actively participate in various social service and community development activities. ▪ To develop leadership qualities, discipline and a sense of social responsibility among the Volunteers. ▪ To provide information about different NSS activities such as National Camps, State-Level Camps, Regional Camps and Adventure Camps. ▪ To encourage students to contribute to society through voluntary service and community engagement. ▪ To promote personality development and teamwork among the NSS Volunteers.
PROBLEMS FACED, IF ANY	▪ Limited time available for detailed interaction and discussion with all the Volunteers. ▪ Some students had limited prior knowledge about the activities and structure of the National Service Scheme (NSS). ▪ Minor technical and coordination issues during the Programme.
IMPACT/OUTCOME ACHIEVED	• The Orientation Programme helped students understand the aims, objectives and activities of the National Service Scheme (NSS). • NSS Volunteers were motivated to participate actively in various social service and community development activities. • NSS Volunteers developed awareness about their social responsibilities and the importance of serving society. • The Programme encouraged students to take part in NSS camps such as National, State-Level, Regional and Adventure Camps. It contributed to the development of leadership qualities, discipline, teamwork and personality development among the Volunteers.

ANALYSIS REPORT OF THE FEEDBACK OBTAINED FROM STUDENTS/ BENEFICIARIES/ ACADEMIC PEERS ETC.	The cumulative feedback indicates that the NSS Orientation Programme was highly effective, with a vast majority of students reporting a significantly improved understanding of community service and the “Not Me, But You” philosophy. While the quality of Resource Persons and the clarity of objectives received top ratings, students expressed a strong collective desire for more practical field exposure and interactive ice-breaking Sessions. Overall, the Programme successfully transitioned participants from passive observers to motivated Volunteers.
