DETAILED REPORT OF THE ACTIVITY	The Department of Marathi, under the aegis of IQAC, organized 'Marathi Language Day' on 27th February, 2026 to commemorate the Birth Anniversary of the renowned Poet V. V. Shirwadkar, popularly known as Kusumagraj. Prof. Dr. Madhukar Nandanwar, Head, Department of Marathi, enlightened the students about the Poet's remarkable literary achievements and his significant contributions to the Marathi language and culture. Prof. Dr. Sunil Shinde, Chairperson of the Programme, emphasized the significance of celebrating the Birth Anniversary of Poet Kusumagraj as 'Marathi Language Day'. He urged everyone to celebrate, respect, and preserve their mother tongue, particularly in the face of the growing influence of other languages. He appealed to the students to continue nurturing their love and respect for the Marathi language. He further emphasized that, although Marathi holds immense cultural and literary importance, it is increasingly influenced by other languages. Therefore, he stressed that it is our collective responsibility to preserve, promote, and enrich the Marathi language. Asso. Prof. Dr. Anita Mahawadiwar shared her insightful experiences with the students and drew inspiration from the life and literary contributions of Poet Kusumagraj. She emphasized that Marathi is our mother tongue and that it is our collective duty to protect, preserve, and nurture the language. Enthusiastic students, namely Mr. Prajwal Shambharkar, Ku. Saroj Selore, Miss. Anjali Masram, and Miss. Tanuja Shambharkar, recited selected works of Poet Kusumagraj, which were warmly appreciated by the audience. Prof. Dr. Madhukar Nandanwar, Head, Department of Marathi, coordinated the Programme and conducted the Proceedings. The Vote of Thanks was delivered by Miss Vithabai Khankhure, a student of B.A.-III. A total of 42 students from Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) and Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com.) attended the Event. The Programme provided an enriching platform for the students to appreciate the literary legacy of Kusumagraj and the cultural significance of Marathi language, making the celebration of 'Marathi Language Day' a memorable and meaningful occasion.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES	• To commemorate the Birth Anniversary of Poet Kusumagraj and celebrate 'Marathi Language Day'. • To sensitize students about the significant contributions of Poet Kusumagraj to Marathi literature, Language, and Culture. • To emphasize on the importance of preserving and nurturing Marathi Language in the face of challenges from other languages. • To provide valuable insights and advice to students through the works of Poet Kusumagraj, inspiring them to appreciate Marathi Literature and embrace their mother tongue.

PROBLEMS FACED, IF ANY	1. Time Management: Ensuring that the Event runs smoothly within the allocated time frame, was a challenge. Coordinating the schedule, including speeches, recitations and other activities, required careful planning and adherence to time limits. 2. Attendance and Participation: Encouraging a significant number of students to attend the Event was a challenge. Competing schedules, academic commitments, or lack of awareness about the significance of the Event adversely affected in the turnout and active participation students. 3. Language Barriers: The Marathi Department comprises of students from diverse linguistic backgrounds. Overcoming potential language barriers and ensuring that non-Marathi-speaking students can appreciate and engage with the Programme's content, was a challenge. However, the Organizing Committee addressed these challenges through careful planning, effective communication, and contingency strategies which ensured the smooth execution of the Event.
IMPACT/OUTCOME ACHIEVED	• Commemorated the Birth Anniversary of Poet Kusumagraj and celebrated 'Marathi Language Day'. • Sensitized students about the significant contributions of Poet Kusumagraj to Marathi literature, Language, and Culture. • Emphasized on the importance of preserving and nurturing Marathi Language in the face of challenges from other languages. • Provided valuable insights and advice to students through the works of Poet Kusumagraj, inspiring them to appreciate Marathi Literature and embrace their mother tongue.

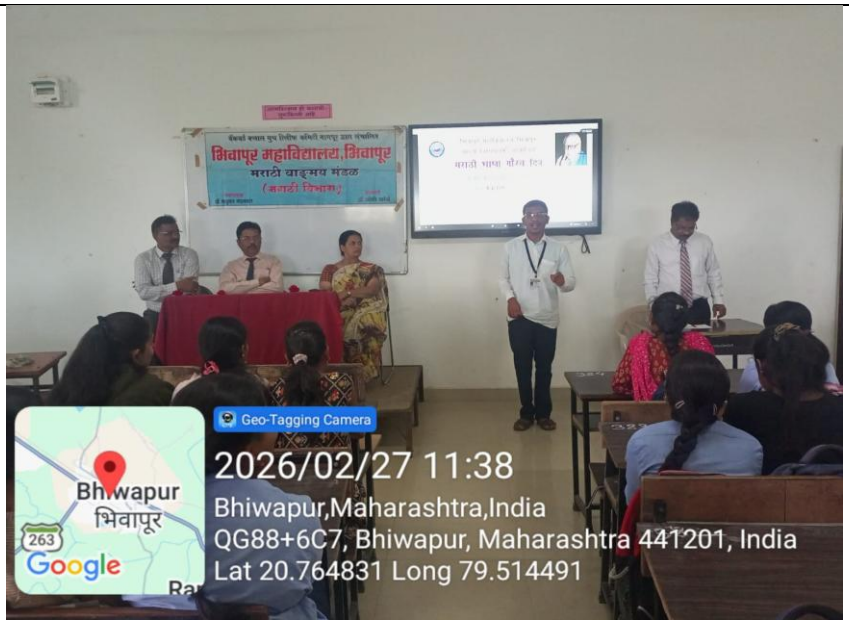

ANALYSIS REPORT OF THE FEEDBACK OBTAINED FROM STUDENTS/ BENEFICIARIES/ ACADEMIC PEERS ETC.	The participants expressed heartfelt appreciation for the Event, describing it as an inspiring and enriching experience. They particularly valued the insightful talks by the faculty and the opportunity to connect with the profound works of Poet Kusumagraj. Many students shared that the recitation Session deepened their appreciation for Marathi literature and instilled a renewed sense of pride in their mother tongue. The Event was praised for its seamless coordination and meaningful content, making it a memorable celebration of Marathi Language Day.
GEOTAG PHOTO GALLERY WITH CAPTIONS (Only GEOTAG photos covering the entire gamut/span of the activity will be accepted)	 Prof. Dr. Madhukar Nandanwar explaining the role and importance of 'Marathi Language Day', on the occasion of Poet Kusumagraj's Birth Anniversary.
